Review Summary

- The school is a safe learning environment where most students adhere to rules and regulations and receive appropriate personal support.
- The school monitors students' attitudes and encourages them to participate in extra-curricular activities, supports their talents, and has appropriate open communication channels with parents and stakeholders.
- The school needs to develop its processes, focus on teachers' professional development programmes, monitor their performance in lessons to raise students' academic attainment in most core subjects.
- The schools needs to provide academic support programmes that meet their educational needs.
- The school will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations and will be scheduled a monitoring visit.
