Review Summary

- Al-Imam Al-Ghazali Primary-Intermediate School is a safe learning environment, where some appropriate emotional support programmes are provided.
- The school encourages students to participate in the few extra-curricular activities, supports students with special needs, and opens some communication channels with parents.
- The school needs to focus on teachers' professional development programmes and systematically and accurately monitor their performance in lessons.
- The school should focus on raising students' academic achievement standards and enabling them to acquire the necessary skills in core subjects, especially in English.
- The school will draft an Action Plan based on the review recommendations. A monitoring visit will be scheduled for the school.
