Review Summary

- The school is an outstanding learning environment, where students receive excellent education that contributes to developing their academic skills.
- The school's leadership has an ambitious vision and effective work procedures. It continuously improves the performance of the school staff by implementing purposeful workshops and training programmes. This has contributed to an excellent delivery of teaching and learning and students achieving high academic standards.
- The school has many outstanding aspects, such as effective communication with partners, and provision of a wide range of supportive guidance and academic programmes, which have significantly contributed to the students' outstanding personal and academic growth.
- The school needs to disseminate distinctive practices more widely, especially in improving students' writing skills in English, optimising learning time, and continuing to support the low achieving students.
- The school is 'Outstanding' when reviewed and will develop an Action Plan based on the presented review recommendations.
